BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SPECIALIZED IN WEB DEVELOPMENT

SUMMARY I am a graduating student from De La Salle University Dasmariñas, pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Information Technology with a specialization in Web Development. With a strong foundation in front-end technologies and a keen eye for UI/UX design, I excel in creating visually appealing and user-friendly web interfaces. My academic journey has equipped me with skills in modern web development frameworks, responsive design principles, and best practices for accessibility and usability.
